Description	Grants	Revenue	Expenses
Digital Readiness for Business			*367

This year our Digital Readiness for Business Program successfully supported two businesses, delivering a total value of $225 in donated service hours from our dedicated volunteers, who played a crucial role in enhancing our clients' digital presence.

We conducted thorough analyses of each business's needs, allowing us to develop targeted strategies for website updates that improved information transmission and boosted performance. Our comprehensive approach also included training on effective audience engagement through blogging, empowering our clients to connect with their target markets in meaningful ways.

(	Community Grants			$206

This year our Community Grant Program invested $206 in new supplies, which will enable us to extend our resources to an additional 100 students. As we closed out our purchasing for the year, we prepared to accept applications for supply requests, ensuring that we are ready to meet the needs of local organizations and individual creators in the new year.

CPR Classes			$3

Our CPR Program took significant strides towards enhancing our life-saving training initiatives. This year, we have dedicated our efforts to developing a robust curriculum and comprehensive training materials, laying the groundwork for expanded participation and accessibility. By refining our program structure, we aim to accommodate more students annually, equipping them with critical skills that can make a difference in emergencies.

Our focus on curriculum development includes incorporating the latest best practices in CPR techniques, first aid, and emergency response, ensuring that our training is not only effective but also aligned with national standards. We are excited to introduce engaging learning materials that cater to diverse learning styles, making our CPR training more accessible and impactful for all participants.
